

8th September 2016 – All India Camel Art Contest

Art is an integral part of our lives. It adds creativity and beauty to everything.

SGS organized an All India Camel Art Contest on 8th September 2016 to give opportunity to students to showcase their imagination through creative and artistic skills.

The contest was open to children for classes Buds – V.

Children participated with full zeal and enthusiasm and exhibited artistic skill in the contest by making beautiful drawings on the topics like My Toys, Favourtie Park, My Hobbies and City Traffic.

The contest was full of enthralling events that saw participation of students in large number.
