

27th July 2016 – Inter House Fusion Competition

Musing into the realms of serenity and experiencing the charms of austerity, students of SGS showcased their talent in an Inter-House Fusion Competition on 27th July 2016. They filled the atmosphere with the beautiful melody of their voice and the vigor of patriotism.

Each house presented a beautiful amalgamation of Classical and Patriotic songs on the tunes of various instruments ranging from guitar, drums, tabla, keyboard and even mridang. Harmony and Glory house were crowned the first position followed by Peace and Pride. The mesmerizing rhythm and coordination among the students created an aura of divinity in the hearts of judges as well as audience. The event added yet another spark to the Inter-House Competitions with its fervent melodies.
