

6th August 2014 – Painting Competition

Children who paint learn to think with an open mind, to look at situations creatively and they learn to express themselves more deeply their art and their words, they are able to take lessons learned through painting and apply those skills to new situation. To enhance these much required skills in the pupils, our school participating in inter school literary festival – Renaissance -14 on the spot painting competition on 6th August 2014 in New Era Public School. Many schools participated in the competition. Six students from SGS, participated in this event.

Roopal Singh of Class VIII B from SGS performed extremely well and stood first in the competition and brought laurels to the school. She was awarded a certificate & trophy